ONE GRADUATE IN 1889
Grace Chapman Gould

It seemeth such a little way to me
Across to that strange country,
The Beyond;
For it has grown to be
The Home of those of whom I am So fond.

And so for me there was no sting of Death.
It was but crossing, with abated breath,
A little strip of Sea,
To find one's loved ones waiting on the shore
More beautiful, more precious than before.

WE'RE OF THE G. A. ALUMNI

TUNE: MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA

Here's a song for dear old Gould's, we'll sing it with a will;

Sing of Gould's Academy, that stands on Bethel Hill.

She's the school we loved the best, and oh, we love her still!

We're of the G. A. Alumni.

CHORUS:

Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah for old G. A.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Three cheers for old G. A.

'Eighty-eight and 'nine-ers have come back to her today!

We're of the G. A. Alumni.

She's our Alma Mater, and we seemed to hear her call,

Call for grown-up children, with a mother's love for all;

Longing for the voices that have echoed
through her hall,

Longing for G. A. Alumni.

CHORUS:

Fling her windows open wide, and open wide
her door;

Ring her bell to summon all these boys and girls once more.

We'll come back to dear old Gould's with youthful hearts of yore.
We're of the G. A. Alumni.

CHORUS:

Yes, today the 'eighty-eight and 'nine-ers here
have met;
We'll renew the friendships that are precious
to us yet;
Chums at Gould's Academy we never will forget.
We're of the G. A. Alumni.

CHORUS:

Alumna.
